

Policy 34-00 Public Comment

Sponsor: District Governing Board

Policy

The District Governing Board (DGB) Chair may offer the public time to speak and may limit that time. Unless comment relates to agenda items, Board action is limited to directing staff to study and/or schedule the matter for future consideration.

Persons addressing the Board shall state their name, affiliation, and subject being addressed. Organizations or groups wishing to address the Board will select a spokesperson that will be recognized to address the Board. Persons who fail to observe public comment procedures and/or appropriate public decorum may be denied further opportunity to address the Board and/or may be expelled from the meeting.
