

Policy 301-00 Curriculum Development

Sponsor: Academic Affairs

Policy

The purpose of curriculum is to provide the framework for courses and programs in the various disciplines. This framework stems from the College's mission and values and supports the currency, coherency and congruency of content to facilitate and enhance student learning and teaching effectiveness. As the primary participants in the development, assessment, and revision of curriculum, faculty are responsible for delivering and maintaining high curriculum standards, integrity, and quality.
